PETITIONS TO WHITE HOUSE ON GAS PRICES NOW ONLINE
Arizonans Invited to Sign to Send Message to President, Congress

PHOENIX – Governor Janet Napolitano today announced that Arizonans are invited to sign petitions urging the White House and Congress to take action on gas prices. The petitions are now available on the Governor's Web site, at www.azgovernor.gov/lowerfuelprices.

The petitions will be collected and sent to Washington, letting federal lawmakers and President Bush know that high gas prices are having a real impact on family budgets, and citizens demand action.

Gas prices have soared to more than $3 per gallon in recent weeks, at the same time major oil companies are announcing record profits.

"It is outrageous that citizens are paying more for a tank of gas every time they fill up at the pump," said Napolitano. "This is one of the many issues that affect Arizonans and our country and should be addressed in a comprehensive and immediate fashion."

To fill out the petitions, Arizonans simply log onto the Internet and fill in the blanks, then send.
